President's Message

Dear Students,

The beginning of another academic year is a familiar ritual for Sweet Briar College, even though each autumn has its own particular anticipation and excitement. At the end of the year we will celebrate a Commencement as our graduates leave this special campus to find their places in the world. But fall is a commencement as well, a celebration of our coming together in this place to share the adventures of learning. Because this will be my first year at Sweet Briar, I look forward to the challenges and accomplishments we will undertake together.

Soon we shall settle down in the exquisite beauty of this setting and try to make the most of the opportunities we meet. To react, to question, and to learn are the obvious intellectual challenges which confront us. To reach out, to make commitments, and to understand others are also vital, personal opportunities open to us. It is my hope that in all our activities we will find profound satisfaction in personal growth and in an enriched acceptance and understanding of the world we share.

With great pleasure and a sense of anticipation, I greet you as we begin this academic year. I look forward to meeting each of you, and I extend my sincerest wishes for a fulfilling year at Sweet Briar College.

MESSAGE from the S.G.A. PRESIDENT

Dear Students,

As a student, I view this fresh academic year as an exciting one, filled with intellectual challenges, personal accomplishments and rewarding experiences. Each new year is a complete metamorphosis, from the unknown to the known, involving different people and a variety of situations. We are all a part of a new beginning, the 1990-91 academic year at Sweet Briar College.

Every year is a new beginning, bringing in students from all different corners of the world. We are even fortunate enough to get a taste of internationalism through our professors, some who come to instruct at Sweet Briar from China or Italy. We experience this inception together, embodied on 3,300 acres of rolling hills, in classrooms with oval shaped tables, in the dining hall with tables that sit side by side. This new beginning brings us interaction, enjoyment, trust and most of all, a quality education.

I encourage you to seize this commencement and make the most of your everyday challenges. Consider this beginning a rebirth, another chance at making the most out of a year. I expect that the start of this year will be one of the best in history. We are united as one, stepping into our new beginning together, as students of Sweet Briar College.

Best wishes for a rewarding academic year.

President of the S.G.A.

SWEET BRIAR HISTORICAL SKETCH

Sweet Briar was founded in the first year of this century by Indiana Fletcher Williams in memory of her only daughter, Daisy, who died in 1884 at the age of sixteen. Mrs. Williams was a daughter of Elijah Fletcher, who came to Virginia from Ludlow, Vermont, in the early years of the nineteenth century and taught school in Amherst County. Later he moved to Lynchburg where he owned and published a newspaper, became a civic leader, and amassed large holdings of land as well as a considerable fortune.

At the time of Mrs. Williams' death in 1900, her estate consisted of more than eight thousand acres of land, including the Sweet Briar plantation, and over half of a million dollars. Under the terms of her will, the Trustees were directed to incorporate an educational foundation in the state of Virginia, to establish it as a perpetual memorial to her daughter, and to turn over to it all property left to them in trust.

It was Mrs. Williams' desire, according to the following excerpt from her will, that it shall be the general scope and object of the school to impart to its students such education in sound learning, and such physical, moral, and religious training as shall in the judgment of the Directors best fit them to be useful members of society."

The first Board of Directors determined that the college should be free from denominational control and that it should maintain the highest academic standards, uniting classical and modern ideals of education.

Sweet Briar College opened formally in September, 1906, with fifty-one students, including fifteen day students. Its A.B. degree, granted for the first time in 1910, was soon accepted for graduate work in leading universities of the country.

By 1921, Sweet Briar held membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the American Association of University Women, and the American Council on Education, and was approved by the Association of American Universities. Sweet Briar is a member of the College Entrance Examination Board, is a contributing member of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens and is affiliated with the Intercollegiate Center for Classical Studies in Rome. Sweet Briar College offers courses leading to teacher certification in the State of Virginia and 29 other states at both the elementary and secondary level. The music department is approved by the National Association of Schools of Music. Its chapter of Phi Beta Kappa is the Theta of Virginia, authorized in 1949.

In May, 1927, a Board of Overseers was established. It consists of the seven Directors and additional members elected by the Directors for four-year terms. The active oversight of the college is in the hands of this larger board whose decisions are submitted to the Board of Directors for ratification. Alumnae representation on the Board of Overseers was instituted in 1934. Through a policy adopted in 1973, each graduating class now elects one of its members to serve a special two-year term on the Board of Overseers.

Sweet Briar's first five presidents were women. Dr. Mary L. Benedict held the office from the opening in 1906 until 1916; Dr. Emilie Watts McVea served from 1916 to 1925; Dr. Meta Glass from 1925 to 1946; Dr. Martha B. Lucas from 1946 to 1950; Dr. Anne Gary Pannell from 1950 to 1971; Dr. Harold B. Whitemen, Jr., from 1971 to 1983; and Dr. Nenah E. Fry, who began her administration as seventh president of the college in 1983.

SWEET BRIAR'S MISSION

Sweet Briar is a four-year independent college whose aim is to prepare women to be active, responsible members of a world community. Its curriculum is organized on the premise that a foundation in the liberal arts and sciences is an essential means to this end. Study of the liberal arts and sciences enhances the development of critical and creative abilities, develops the ability to synthesize disparate information, equips the student for graduate and professional education, and encourages the individual to continue to learn long after leaving Sweet Briar. A broadly based academic program teaches her to view her experience within wider contexts, to appreciate the achievements of the past, to understand the methods and major theories of science, to gain an appreciation of the arts, and to communicate with precision and cogency. At Sweet Briar this study takes place within a residential environment that encourages physical well-being, ethical awareness, sensitivity to others, responsibility for one's actions, personal initiative, and the assumption of leadership.

Sweet Briar continues its commitment as a women's college in order to devote all of its resources to the education of women in the full range of the liberal arts and sciences, including those subjects that have been traditionally considered as male domains. The faculty teaches individuals on a human scale. In small classes, students receive the attention that encourages self-confidence and the improvement of skills for life and livelihood. A highly qualified faculty, committed to undergraduate teaching of the highest standards, contributes to fulfilling these goals. The College continues to seek a diverse student body which is drawn from a national and international pool of applicants. As an independent college, Sweet Briar possesses the flexibility to respond to the many challenges that face higher education in a rapidly changing world.

SWEET BRIAR SONG

Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, flower fair,
The rose that on your crest you wear
Shall never fade, but always bear
The beauty, O Sweet Briar!
Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, thy columns white Shine on thy hills a beacon light
Of truth, to burn with radiance bright Forever, O Sweet Briar!
Sweet Briar, Sweet Briar, we sing to thee.
May thy foundations ever be Strong as thy hills, thy purity
That of thy rose, Sweet Briar!

HONOR SYSTEM

The Honor System, a workable system of mutual trust which has been incorporated into all aspects of life at Sweet Briar, consists of three principles of honor upon which the community operates. These principles are: the validity of one's word, the honesty of one's work, and respect for the property of others. While allowing students a greater degree of individual responsibility, the Student Government Association rules and Honor System serve to establish a cohesive sense of community living. When a student assumes this responsibility, it is believed that she will recognize the rights of others and maintain consideration for these rights. This system operates for the benefit of the whole and the individual only when each individual accepts her responsibility to the whole. IGNORANCE IS NO EXCUSE.

The Honor System is based on the fundamental belief that harmony in community living is best achieved when it has as its basis honor and mutual trust. The Honor System at Sweet Briar College is constructed so as to uphold these three principles which we believe to be the core of individual and community honor:

1. Integrity of one's word.
2. Respect for the property of others.
3. Honesty in academic work (including preparation of classroom work, papers, laboratory work and notebooks, tests and examinations).

Each student is required, under pledge, to adopt these standards and to uphold them during the duration of her career at Sweet Briar.

After passing the Student Government Association test at the beginning of her first year at Sweet Briar, every student is expected to sign the Honor Pledge, without reservation, indicating that she will adhere to the principles of the Association as long as she is a member thereof.

EACH TIME A SWEET BRIAR STUDENT SIGNS HER NAME TO ANYTHING, SHE ACKNOWLEDGES HER PROMISE TO UPHOLD THE HONOR PLEDGE.

I. Sweet Briar Honor Pledge

I PLEDGE THAT I WILL GUARANTEE THE VALIDITY OF MY WORD, MAINTAIN ABSOLUTE HONESTY IN MY WORK, AND RESPECT THE PROPERTY OF OTHERS. REALIZING THAT THESE STANDARDS ARE AN INTEGRAL PART OF LIFE AT SWEET BRIAR, I HEREBY ASSUME MY OBLIGATION TO UPHOLD THEM. I WILL REPORT MYSELF AND ASK OTHERS TO REPORT THEMSELVES FOR ANY INFRACTION OF THIS PLEDGE.

In order to avoid external controls as much as possible, we depend upon certain means of self-enforced discipline:

1. The student must report herself for any infraction of the Sweet Briar Honor System. If there is cause to think that specific infractions are occurring, judicial representatives, in accordance with judicial procedures, have the power to ascertain whether or not this is true.
2. The student is first of all responsible for her own behavior. If she has reasonable knowledge of a breach of the pledge, she is honor-bound, by her signature, to ask the offender to report herself. If the offender fails to report herself, it is within another student's power to report to the proper Student Government Association officer. Signing the pledge does not commit a student to report an offender, but it does commit her to ask the offender to report herself.
3. Students are reminded that, once a Judicial case has been decided, there is to be no further discussion by those directly or indirectly involved.

Any infraction of the Sweet Briar Rules and Regulations which involves lying, cheating, or stealing is considered a breach of honor.

An honor regulation is one which the student has pledged herself to uphold. The student is honor-bound to report herself and to ask other students to report themselves for infractions of the honor regulations. Such infractions will be considered honor offences and as such will be punished with severity.

Students should realize that every other student has the same obligations to the community in upholding the Honor System. Personal feelings and/or relationships should have no bearing upon fulfilling this responsibility. In maintaining the spirit of an honorable community and of a just judicial system, students must respect the decisions made by the Judicial Committee, a body elected by the students. Breaking this spirit may serve to alienate the individual or create disturbance or uneasiness among the community.

II. Academic Honesty

THE VALIDITY OF THE SWEET BRIAR DEGREE DEPENDS UPON THE INTEGRITY OF THE WORK WHICH IT REPRESENTS. Therefore, principles of academic honesty are an essential part of the Sweet Briar Honor System. In accordance with these principles the following regulations have been established:

A. Examinations and tests

1. All tests and examinations are given under the Honor System. The student's signature signifies that the information given on a test or paper is her own. It is regarded as a guarantee of honest (As a reminder to all students, each is required to sign a printed pledge on every examination that she takes. In addition, on every paper and test, each student is required to write I PLEDGE in addition to signing her name.)

2. Only those materials needed for the examination may be brought into the examination room. For their own protection students are advised not to bring notebooks into classrooms where tests and examinations are to be held.

B. Papers and Plagiarism

1. The presentation of the words or ideas of another as one's own work is plagiarism. The wording used by others in expressing even commonly known facts is private property, and to include it in a paper as though it were one's own, is dishonest. Ideas and facts not generally known and not commonly accepted still bear the personal impress of the people who formulated or discovered them, and it is unfair for the student to present such facts and theories as though they were her own, even if she changes the phrasing their originator used to express them. The student may use another person's work only if due credit is given.

a. Credit is given for the words of another by enclosing them in quotation marks or by indenting and single-spacing them.

b. Credit is given for the fact or idea of another, or the paraphrase or summary of another's work, by a footnote specifying the source. Acknowledgement must be made even though the student expresses the ideas and facts in words different from the source.

c. A footnote must be used to show exact source. A quoted passage may range from a single word to a phrase, sentence, paragraph, or series of paragraphs.

d. Every quotation must be exact. If words or phrases within a quotation are omitted for the sake of brevity, three dots (...) should be used to indicate the omitted portion.

e. If such words as pronouns or proper names in a quotation are not clear, an identifying or explanatory word may be inserted by the student. This editorial material must be enclosed in square ( [ ] ) brackets

2. Examples of the dishonest use of material follow:

a. This is a paragraph from THE RISE OF AMERICAN CIVILIZATION by Charles A. and Mary Beard:

"When the first Continental Congress assembled in Carpenter's Hall in Philadelphia, it was found that many of the ablest men in America had been sent to speak for the discontented groups in the colonies. Some were bold: Gladson of South Carolina was for an immediate attack on General Gage in Boston. Others were cautious: Dickinson of Pennsylvania thought that a respectful petition to the king would restore harmony; Washington, like Cromwell before him, apparently awaited the decree of Providence."

The following is not an exact copy of the original, but it contains some phraseology which was formulated by the Beards and which therefore belongs to them. To hand in as an original paper one containing this paragraph without giving credit to the Beards would be dishonest:

Among the members of the first Continental Congress, which met in Philadelphia in 1774, were some of the most capable men in America. They had been sent to speak for the discontented groups in the colonies. Some of the delegates, like Gladson of South Carolina, called for decisive action. Others, like Dickinson of Pennsylvania, were more cautious, believing that a respectful appeal to the king would lead to a solution of their problems. Washington apparently awaited the decree of Providence.

In the following paragraph, none of the wording employed by the Beards remains, but the whole framework of the paragraph, the ideas, and their arrangement, has been retained. The inclusion of this paragraph in a paper as if it were original work would be dishonest:

Many of the wisest men in the colonies were among the delegates of the first Continental Congress. There was a great difference of opinion among these men about what ought to be done concerning the grievances of the colonies. There were those who favored prompt decisive action. Gladson of South Carolina, for instance, advocated attacking the British troops in Boston at once. There were others who believed that a deferential appeal to the king would bring about a redressing of their wrongs. Washington seemed to be content with a policy of watchful waiting for what fate had in store. No wonder that John Adams declared the Congress was part Whig, part Tory, and part mongrel.

The sum of these principles, however, is not that it is impossible to utilize the work of the Beards. The material in this paragraph may be used in several ways. In the first place, it may be quoted entirely or in part, a footnote being used to refer to the source of the quotation. In the second place, all or part of the paragraph may be used as an indirect quotation. In indirect quotation the writer does not reproduce exactly the words of his source but presents the ideas in his own words, at the same time acknowledging this indebtedness. Paragraph 3 might be used for instance, after some such introduction as this: According to Charles A. and Mary R. Beard in the Rise of American Civilization, many of the wisest men in the colonies were...etc." Finally, the facts in the paragraph or some of them might be used without borrowing either the phraseology or the organization employed by the Beards, credit being duly given them in a footnote.

b. The following is quoted in its entirety from Writing Research Papers; A Complete Guide by James Lester:1

Original Material

Wuthering Heights is the most remarkable novel in English. It is perfect, and perfect in the rarest way: it is the complete bodying forth of an intensely individual apprehension of the nature of man and life. That is to say, the content is strange enough, indeed baffling enough, while the artistic expression of it is flawless.

Student Version A

The most remarkable novel in English is Wuthering Heights. It brings forth an individual apprehension of the nature of man and life; therefore it is perfect in the rarest way. The artistic expression is flawless, but the content is strange, indeed baffling.

This piece of writing is plagiarism in its most deplorable form. The student has simply reversed the order of each sentence, retaining the essential phrasing. He provides no documentation whatever, which implies to the reader that these sentences are entirely his original creation.

Student Version B

Wuthering Heights is a great English novel. It is perfect in the rarest way: it provides an individual apprehension of man's nature. The artistic expression is flawless, although the content is strange and baffling.1

1Walter Allen, The English Novel(New York, 1954), p.223.

1James Lester, Writing Research Papers; A Complete Guide (Glenview, Illinois, 1967), p.48-49.

This student's version is also plagiarism, even though she carefully documents the citation. She has obviously copied almost directly from her source, changing only a few words and phrases. Her method is neither summary nor paraphrase. This error may be avoided by direct quotation or, preferably, by scholarly paraphrase that may include some direct quotation of any striking significant or well-worded ideas.

Student Version C

Walter Allen insists that the "artistic expression" of Wuthering Heights is flawless. 1 Allen admits that the content is strange and even baffling, but her argues that the novel is perfect because it accurately presents "an intensely individual apprehension of the nature of man and life."<sup>2</sup>

1 Walter Allen, The English Novel (New York, 1954), p.223.

2 Ibid.

This version represents a satisfactory handling of the source material. The authority being cited is identified and acknowledged at the outset, the substance of his comment is well expressed in the student's own language, and a key idea in the original, one strikingly worded, is directly quoted, so as to give full credit is due. The student has been wholly honest to her source, and she has made effective use of the authority for her purposes.

3. The Judicial Committee suggests that any student who remains unclear about the proper procedure for borrowing and accrediting material should seek the advice of a professor or a member of the Judicial Committee.

4. Individual departments will distribute additional written information about potential honor violations.

For the Winter Term a student may drop a course within the first five days of the term. The grade of P will appear on her record. If her final grade is less than C-, she shall not receive credit for the course and the designation NC will appear on her record and will not be counted in the computation of her cumulative credit ratio.

d. An instructor or department may exclude a course from Pass/No Credit grading. Succourses will be so indicated in the catalog.

b. With the permission of the instructor a student may register for a course on a "potential credit" basis, provided she is registered for at least 12 additional hours of credit. The instructor will specify the requirements of the course and the student must meet these requirements as scheduled if she wishes credit. Not later than one week before the end of the classes in the term, the student must notify the instructor and the Registrar's Office if she does not wish credit for the course, in which case her course registration will be canceled.

c. Permission to audit a course must be obtained from the instructor.

c. An instructor may request a change in the hour of a class, the place of meeting, or the sectioning, which will be made by the Registrar with the approval of the Dean if the general schedule allows it. The Registrar shall resolve conflicts and shall schedule courses in hours "to be arranged" (tba).

C. Hours and Credits, Requirements for Graduation and Class Standing

1. The credit ratio is the ratio of the total number of quality points to the total number of graded semester hours attempted.

2. a. The credit ratio is computed as follows: for each semester hour of A, 4 quality points; B, 3; C, 2; D, 1; F, 0. For every semester hour of plus add 0.3, and for every semester hours of minus, subtract 0.3, with the following exceptions: F is not subject to either plus or minus variation, and A is subject only to minus variation.

b. In computing the credit ratio, courses taken at another institution are not counted, except for (a) those courses taken, while a student is at Sweet Briar, in Tri-College Consortium colleges (Randolph-Macon Woman's College and Lynchburg College); and (b) those courses taken during the academic year only in the Seven-College Exchange program or as part of the Washington Semester at American University. Grades earned in the second institution involved in a 3-2 dual degree program or in the Sweet Briar Junior Year in France and Junior Year in Spain Programs will be recorded in the student's file but not on the Sweet Briar transcript, and will not be computed in the grade point ratio. (See also D. 1. a.; H. 1. c.)

3. a. She must carry not less than nine hours of work for credit and must have a credit ratio of 2.000 for her entire college course and a credit ratio in her major of 2.000 in order to obtain the degree.

g. A student who withdraws prior to completing the degree and wishes to return at a later date has a total of four years from the date of her withdrawal in which to complete the degree under the regulations existing at the time of her withdrawal. After four years, the regulations in effect at the date of her return will be in force.

h. Under normal circumstances a student who has failed to complete the requirements for graduation after four years of full time study or its equivalent by the end of the senior year will be expected to complete her requirements within two years of the previously anticipated date of graduation.

i. Exceptional cases may be referred by the Dean to the Executive Committee of the Faculty.

4. a. For senior standing a student in the Fall Term must have passed at least 88 semester-hours of work, must have a cumulative credit ratio of not less than 2.000, and must have met the degree requirements in foreign language and physical education.

b. For junior standing in the Fall Term a student must have passed at least 56 semester-hours and have a cumulative credit ratio of not less than 2.000.

c. For sophomore standing in the Fall Term a student must have passed at least 24 semester-hours and have a cumulative credit ratio of not less than 2.000.

d. A student who, at the beginning of the academic year, has failed to earn the hours or credit ratio or to meet other stipulations for full class standing may be declared ineligible to continue her college course, may be placed on academic suspension, or may be carried on the roll of her class as a Conditional Sophomore, Junior, or Senior. If carried on the class roll, she will be placed on the warning or probation list and will not be entitled to hold extracurricular office until she has regained full class standing. For specific details, see the "Statement of Academic Progress Requirements," Appendix A.

5. a. Any student who fails to achieve a cumulative credit ratio of 2.000 at the end of the Fall Term will be reported by the dean to the Committee on Student Eligibility of the Executive Committee of the Faculty which shall either place the student on the warning or probation list, or on academic suspension, or declare her ineligible to continue her college course, No student on warning or probation may hold any extracurricular office.

b. A student who has been on the warning or probation list for three consecutive terms not including the Winter Term, or who has failed within one year to repair a failure in any requirement for the degree, shall normally be placed on academic suspension or be declared ineligible to continue her college course. Exceptions to this rule may be made on the recommendation to the Dean by the committee on Student Eligibility of the Executive Committee of the Faculty.

c. Any first-year student whose cumulative credit ratio is below 1.000 may be dismissed from the College for a semester. Subsequent readmission would be contingent on evidence of satisfactory academic work completed at another accredited institution.

D. Tri-College Consortium

1. a. By agreement among three area colleges, a student at Sweet Briar College may take a course at Lynchburg College or Randolph-Macon Woman's College, provided the course is not currently available at Sweet Briar College. With the approval of the appropriate department at Sweet Briar and the Dean, the course may be counted toward the Sweet Briar degree and the grade will be counted in the computation of the cumulative credit ratio. These stipulations apply to summer term work as well, although summer term tuition must be paid on the campus where the course work is taken.

b. A student involved in the Tri-College Consortium Exchange may not take over 50% of his or her courses off the home campus in any one term. Exceptions may be made by the Deans of the institutions concerned.

c. Application for permission to participate in the Tri-College Consortium Exchange should be made the Dean. No tuition will be charged in addition to that already paid to Sweet Briar College (exception: summer term tuition, A. 1. above), but the student must pay any extra fees or charges and must make her own arrangements for transportation.

E. Dual Degree Programs

1. The purpose of these programs is to satisfy the needs of the student who wishes to combine the advantages of a liberal arts curriculum with the more specialized training offered by a large institution. The general plan of study comprises three years at Sweet Briar, followed by two years at a cooperating university, and leads to the award of the two degrees: The Bachelor of Arts from Sweet Briar, and the Bachelor of Science from the university.

2. The Sweet Briar degree will be awarded at the end of the fourth year, provided that the student's work that year has been satisfactory. If Sweet Briar's commencement occurs before the fourth-year grades are available, the student will be allowed to participate in graduation exercises, but her degree will be withheld until the final grades are received from the cooperating institution.

3. In addition to the specific prerequisites of the cooperating university, the student must satisfy the following Sweet Briar requirements by the end of her third year:

- a. Completion of three-quarters of the total hours required for graduation.
- b. Completion of the area distribution requirements.
- c. Completion of a major field of study, except when courses at the university can be applied toward the major.

4. In order to be eligible for the Sweet Briar degree, a student following a 3-2 program shall have spent at least two years in residence, one of which must be her junior year.

F. Tests, Examinations, Culminating Experience, Grades

1. a. All tests and examinations are given under the honor system. The student's signature to any written work is regarded as a pledge of honest work.

2. a. Examinations for each course are held at the end of each Fall and Spring Term and are scheduled in accordance with a plan approved by the Faculty. At the discretion of the instructor an examination may be given in a Winter Term course, but no time will be set aside in the College Calendar for Winter Term examinations.

b. Scheduling a final examination outside the official examination period must be approved by the Dean.

c. No take-home final examination may be distributed before noon on the last day of classes for the Fall or Spring Term. Take-home final examinations require the permission of the Dean, which will be granted if the nature of the examinations precludes taking them under the usual circumstances.

d. If a department or instructor wishes to substitute some other piece of work for an examination, the Dean must be informed in advance and not later than one month before the end of classes within the term.

e. Course examinations are normally of two or three hours' duration and must be terminated promptly. An instructor who wishes to give an examination of longer duration must request prior approval of the Dean.

f. All course work must be completed by the last day of classes in each term.
3. a. If a student is ill, it is her responsibility to make arrangements with her instructor(s) to complete course work, quizzes, or examinations. Verification of hospital or infirmary confinement may be obtained from the Health Center at the request of the faculty member(s) concerned.

b. If a student is in the Infirmary at the time scheduled for an examination or test, she may, with the permission of the instructor, take it in the Infirmary. By arrangement with the instructor, however, she may take it after she has left the Infirmary at a time and in a place to be determined by the faculty member.

c. Examinations and tests taken in the Infirmary are conducted under the honor system.

d. If a student is absent from a term examination or test for reasons other than health, she will receive an F on the exam or test unless she presents for such absence an explanation satisfactory to the instructor and the Dean.

4. a. Departments are required to designate a "culminating" senior exercise most appropriate to the discipline and required of all senior majors. This would carry three hours of credit and should take place during the spring of the senior year.

5. a. Term and final grades are to be assigned with the following meaning: A indicates excellent work; B, good; C, satisfactory; D, poor but passing; F, failure. The plus symbol may be used with B, C, and D; the minus may be used with A, B, C, and D.

b. No grade reported to the Registrar's Office may be changed without the consent of the Faculty, unless such change is necessitated by a clerical error or other oversight when correction may be made after consultation with the Dean. Grade changes are limited to the semester subsequent to that in which the work was done. Changes can only be made if the incorrect grade was the result of faculty error.

c. Final term grades shall be reported to the Registrar who will inform the student. These grades must not be given to any student or her parents by an instructor.

d. Term and final grades shall be reported to the Registrar promptly and in no case later than the date set by the Registrar. A special date will be set each year for the reporting of the grades of seniors before Commencement.

e. i. In the case of year-long courses, the numbers of which are linked by a semi-colon (formerly a hyphen), the Fall Term is a prerequisite to the Spring Term, and no credit will be given for one without the other except with the permission of the instructor. Separate grades will be given in Fall and Spring courses. If a student receives an F in either semester of a semi-colon course, the F grade will be counted and averaged in her GPA.

ii. In year courses the numbers of which are separated by a comma, the grade for each term is separately recorded and graded, but the Fall Term is a prerequisite for the Spring Term unless otherwise indicated in the course description in the catalog.

f. i. If the Fall Term grade in a year course is an F, the instructor shall decide whether the work of the term must be repeated. If the final grade is an F, the instructor shall decide whether both terms or only the Spring Term must be repeated before a final grade may be given for the course.

ii. If a grade of F is obtained at the end of the Fall Term of a year course and the course is then dropped, the grade shall be counted for one term only. If the course is continued into the Spring Term and dropped after the twentieth day of the term, a grade of F will be recorded for the term.

6. a. In case the grade at the end of any term is F, the instructor shall complete a report thereof in duplicate on a form available in the Office of the Registrar.

b. If a student fails a required course, she must repeat the course either at Sweet Briar or at another institution, subject to the approval of the Dean and the head of the department concerned. If a student fails a required course twice, she may be declared ineligible to remain in the college.

c. I or Incomplete indicates that a substantial piece of required work has not been completed but under circumstances which merit an extension of time. If the student feels she has a valid reason for requesting an incomplete, she should obtain a Permission for Incomplete form from the Dean's office, complete it, sign it, and have it approved by the faculty member and the Assistant Dean. Hence, the Incomplete becomes a three-way agreement. This process must be completed by the last day of exams. The grade of I may be removed only by the completion of the incomplete work within four weeks after the last class day of the term in which the grade of Incomplete was given. Under exceptional circumstances an extension of time may be granted by the instructor in consultation with the Dean. If the I is not removed within the specified time, a grade of F for the course shall be recorded.

G. Independent Study, Special Study, Directed Study and Internships

1. a. An INDEPENDENT STUDY is defined as pursuit of an upper level research project determined in advance by the student in consultation with and with the approval of a faculty member who will act as the sponsor of the undertaking. The student's work, which may take place off campus, need not be subject to continuous review by the faculty sponsor. Prerequisites for the course shall be the appropriate 100 level course(s) and a 200 level course, or permission of the faculty sponsor. An independent study shall have a 300 level designation, as provided by the Registrar. Independent study projects shall receive from one to three hours of credit, as determined in advance, at the discretion of the faculty sponsor.

b. A student doing an independent study project must obtain on her proposal form the signatures of the faculty member sponsoring her project, of the Chair of the Department or Director of the Program, of the Academic Adviser, and of the Dean. The deadline for completing this procedure shall be the end of the second week of the Fall and Spring Terms and, for the Winter Term, one week before the end of Fall Term classes. For summer independent study, the deadline is one week before the end of Spring Term classes.

c. A credit ratio of C (2.000) in the proposed field of study shall be required for admission to independent study work. First year students therefore are ineligible for independent study during the Winter Term.

d. Exceptions to these rulings may be made for good cause by the Dean in individual cases.

2. a. A SPECIAL STUDY is defined as the study of an intermediate level topic by an individual student or a small group of students under the immediate supervision of a faculty member. Prerequisites for the course shall be the basic course of the department in which study is undertaken and an appropriate 100 level course, or permission of the faculty sponsor. A special study shall have a 200 level designation, as provided by the Registrar. Special study work shall receive from one to three hours of credit determined in advance, at the discretion of the faculty sponsor.

b. A student doing a special study project must obtain on her proposal form the signatures of the faculty member sponsoring the study, or the chair of the Department or Director of the Program, of the Academic Adviser, and procedure shall be the end of the second week of the Fall and Spring Terms.

c. Exceptions to these rulings may be made for good cause by the Dean in individual cases.

3. a. An INTERNSHIP is defined as an off-campus work experience related to a student's academic program. An on-site supervisor and a Sweet Briar College faculty sponsor are needed for direction of the internship.

i. An internship shall consist of a minimum of 120 hours of work, either at the work place or in related field work, and shall receive three semester-hours of credit. With the recommendation of the faculty sponsor and approval of the Dean, longer internships may be awarded more credit, up to a maximum of six semester-hours for any one internship. No more than 12 semester-hours of internship credit may be counted toward the degree.

ii. Internships shall be graded on a Pass/No Credit basis.

b. To be eligible for an internship, a student must meet the following criteria:

i. She must be a sophomore, junior, or senior.

ii. She must have a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or better.

iii. She must have taken at least three semester hours of course work in the field of study to which her internship is related, and she must have at least a 2.0 credit ratio in this field.

c. i. A student initiates the process of obtaining an internship by requesting a signed Intent to Intern form from the Office of Career Planning. This form must be attached to the description of the internship which is submitted for the Dean's approval. The description must be signed by the faculty sponsor, the Chair of the Department or the Director of the Program, and the Dean.

ii. The deadlines for completing this procedure are as follows:

For Fall or Spring Term internships: 1st day of classes.

For Winter Term internships: 1 week before the end of Fall Term classes.

For summer internships: 1 week before the end of Spring Term classes.

iii. A standard letter outlining the College's internship policies and containing the faculty sponsor's name and telephone number shall be sent to the on-site supervisor from the Dean's Office before the internships begin.

iv. The student shall deliver a form for the on-site supervisor to sign and return to the student, verifying that the student has completed the internship. The student will then deliver this signed form to the faculty sponsor.

d. To receive credit for the internship, a student must submit the following:
i. a written report of assigned reading related to the academic discipline in which the internship is taken and to the internship itself. Other work may be substituted for this report with the approval of the faculty sponsor and the Dean.

ii. a journal which provides a detailed description of what the intern did.

iii. a paper in which the intern attempts to make sense of the internship experiences recorded in her journal by relating them to her academic discipline and to any assigned literature.

iv. a form signed by the on-site supervisor verifying satisfactory completion of the internship. It is also the student's responsibility to request her supervisor to send an evaluation of her work directly to the faculty sponsor.

H. Winter Term

1. a. Every student must complete three academic Winter Term courses, independent study projects, or internships for graduation. A minimum of nine hours of Winter Term work is required for graduation. A maximum of three hours of credit exclusive of Physical Education, can be earned in any one Winter Term.

2. b. The minimum number of hours a course must meet is 32 and the minimum number of days per week is 4.

c. An instructor who wishes to repeat a Winter Term course shall submit it to the Committee on Instruction for approval no later than April of the preceding spring. Normally, no course may be offered more than twice in a four-year period.

d. The ceiling on enrollment for Winter term courses would normally be twenty students.

I. Advanced Standing, Summer Work

1. a. Application for credit at Sweet Briar for work pursued elsewhere must be made to the Registrar. In no case will more than 60 semester hours be allowed toward the degree for work taken elsewhere. Courses offered for credit toward the major or minor must be approved by the appropriate department at Sweet Briar College.

b. Credit is tentative until the student has completed one year's work at Sweet Briar with a credit ratio of at least 2.000.

c. No credit will be granted for work taken at another institution, including the Junior Year in France and the Junior Year in Spain, if the grade obtained is less than C-. No transfer credit will be allowed for courses taken Pass/Fail at another institution, unless Pass at that institution is the equivalent of C- or above.

2. a. No more than 12 semester-hours of summer school work will be allowed toward the degree. In order to insure that credit will be transferred, it is strongly recommended that students obtain written permission of the departments concerned and the Dean BEFORE enrolling for summer school courses. If prior permission is not obtained, students must request approval of the courses no later than the end of the second week of the Fall Term following summer school, and transfer credit will depend on written approval of summer work by the departments concerned and the Dean.

J. The Calendar, Class Attendance, Due Dates for Papers and Reports

1. a. The general calendar structure for the academic year as approved by the Faculty shall not be altered without the approval of the Faculty. The specific dates for each annual calendar shall be determined by the Administration of the College.

b. Classes must be held and examinations given in accordance with the official Calendar.

2. a. An instructor who expects to be absent from a class shall make provisions for the class and shall notify the chair of the department and the Dean as to the duration of the absence and the provisions made for the class.

b. In case of unexpected absence, the instructor in question shall notify the chair or, if the chair is unavailable, the Dean; he or she will, insofar as is possible, make provisions for meeting the class or notifying the students that the class will not be held.

c. Students shall remain in the classroom for ten minutes after the scheduled time for the start of class but may leave if the instructor fails to meet the class without notice.

d. i. An instructor must give advance notice of detailed requirements for papers and other major projects and the due date so that the student may have a reasonable time to complete them. When the terms of an assignment seem unreasonable, a student, having consulted the instructor first, may then consult the department chair or the Dean.

ii. While an earlier date for the completion of term papers or reports may be set by the instructor, the latest date permitted is one week before the end of classes in the Fall and Spring Terms. All work for the Winter Term must be completed by the last day of the term.

3. a. Students are expected to attend ALL classes. Faculty may take class participation into account in grading.

b. If a student misses a class, it is her responsibility to make up the work missed and to obtain any new assignments WITHOUT ASSISTANCE FROM THE PROFESSOR. Under normal circumstances faculty DO NOT give extra help to students who miss class unless the absence occurs because the student was admitted to the Infirmary or hospitalized.

c. With the permission of the instructor, a student may change from one section to another in order to make up work. She may not do so in order to remove records of absence or to leave the college early before a vacation or recess, or to return later therefrom.

d. A student who is absent from classes for more than four weeks may re-enter classes only with the permission of the Dean. Only in exceptional cases will she be permitted to carry a full schedule of courses.

e. The Dean may modify at his discretion the application of any of the rules regarding attendance.

K. Honors

1. General honors are awarded at graduation on the basis of the student's entire undergraduate record.

2. The requirement for
i. the degree cum laude is a cumulative credit ratio of not less than 3.300.
ii. the degree magna cum laude is a cumulative credit ratio of not less than 3.500.

iii. the degree summa cum laude is a cumulative credit ratio of not less than 3.800.

3. Departmental honors as well as general honors may be awarded to students enrolled in the Honors Program. Depending on the quality of the student's work, she may receive the degree with Honors, High Honors, or Highest Honors in her major field of study in accordance with the stipulations for the Honors Program as approved by the Faculty.

4. First Year Honors are awarded at the end of the Fall Term to first year students who have achieved a credit ratio of 3.300 provided they have carried at least 12 hours of graded work and received no grade below C. If a student receives a grade of unsatisfactory or NC (no credit), as in Physical Education, that grade will count as a grade below C.

5. Sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have achieved a term credit ratio of not less than 3.500 at the end of a Fall or Spring Term, provided they have carried at least 12 hours of graded work and received no grade below C, may be named to the Dean's List, as approved by the Faculty. If a student receives a grade of unsatisfactory, as in Physical Education, that grade will count as a grade below C.

L. Academic Policy on Disabilities

Sweet Briar College complies with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and accepts students with disabilities who can successfully pursue a demanding arigorous college program. Further information is available in the Office of the Dean.

M. Honor System

If an instructor observes a possible breach of Academic Honor he/she will promptly confer with the student involved (the Faculty are referred for full details to the statement on the Honor System in the Students' Handbook).

LIBRARY

A. Library Collections and Services

The Sweet Briar College Library has one of the finest collections in this part of Virginia. It includes over 210,000 volumes, some of which are rare or unique and over 1000 journal and newspaper subscriptions. Most of these materials are housed in the Mary Helen Cochran Library consisting of five floors of bookstacks, reading, and study areas. The music collection is located in the Junius P. Fishburn Library in the Babcock Fine Arts Center; the mathematics and science materials are in the Fanny B. Fletcher Library in the Guion Science Center; and the art history and studio art materials are located in the Martin C. Shallenberger Library in the Anne Gary Parnell Center.

In addition, Sweet Briar has access to other library resources locally and throughout the country. The Library is a member of the Lynchburg Area Library Cooperative which allows students to use the facilities of academic, public, and special libraries in the area. The DIALOG, BRS, STN, and VuText information retrieval systems provide us access to over 100 million bibliographic citations in over 300 databases. The OCLC system contains over 21,000,000 book and non-print citations, and provides a rapid interlibrary loan subsystem.

The Library faculty offers courses and seminars on library use and materials. Library Orientation and the followup Basic Library Skills Workshops are required of all entering students. Other courses deal with online database searching and advanced research techniques, and are highly recommended for students with major projects. Studies have shown that superior library skills enable students to perform better academically.

Some of the special facilities and collections worth noting are:

1. Reference Room

Here you will find the catalog terminals and over 2,000 reference books including dictionaries, encyclopedias, bibliographies, atlases and CD-ROM databases. Reference works are intended for looking up quick facts or for locating sources of information, so they should be used only in this room. Assistance with reference materials or the card catalog is available from any librarian.

Seating for 70 in the Reference Room and adjacent study gallery make this a popular study area.

2. Circulation Desk

Books are checked out and returned to the Desk. Materials on reserve for courses, audio-visual materials and computer software are kept here. Interlibrary loan materials and items "faxed" to you are may be picked up at the Circulation Desk. A copy machine is adjacent to the desk.

3. Book Stacks

Most of the collection is shelved in the three lower levels of the Cochran Library. Books in "the stacks" are arranged by Library of Congress call numbers.

4. Journals and Newspapers

All journals and newspapers in the Cochran Library, both current and earlier volumes, are on Lower Level 1. Current issues are on display shelves and are arranged alphabetically by title. Many earlier volumes are bound like books and shelved by call number in the older section of Lower Level 1. A large portion of the earlier volumes of journals and newspapers are on microfilm or microfiche. These are kept in microform cabinets and are also filed alphabetically by title. Two reader-printers are available for making paper copies of pages from microforms. Journals and newspapers may not be checked out and should be used only on Lower Level 1. The Library staff will be happy to assist you in finding journal articles and in using the microforms equipment. Journals and microforms in the subject areas of art, music, mathematics and the sciences are kept in the appropriate branch libraries.

5. Photocopying

Photocopy machines are located adjacent to the Circulation Desk in all libraries. Desk attendants will provide assistance and collect payment. Copies are ten cents per page. The copyright law (PL 94-553) governs the making of photocopies. Under certain conditions specified in the law, a copy may be made for "private study, scholarship or research," but for no other purpose. Students may not charge the cost of photocopies.

6. Music Library

The music collection of over 2,000 books, 3,500 scores, and 2,000 sound recordings is located in the Fishburn Library in Babcock. Records, tapes, and compact discs may not be checked out. Appropriate listening equipment are available for use in the library. A photocopy machine is available here.

7. Art Library

The art history and studio art collections of over 12,000 books and journals are located in the Shallenberger Library in the Pannell Center. A small seminar room, individual carrels and a lounge area provide a variety of study environments. A photocopy machine is also available.

8. Science Library

The Fletcher Library in Guion houses more than 18,000 books and journals in the fields of mathematics, computer science, biology, chemistry, physics, applied psychology and environmental studies. Earlier volumes of most journals are on microfilm or microfiche. A reader-printer is available

B. Library Policies

1. The borrower is responsible for the prompt and safe return of all books checked out in her name. Any student who does not properly check out a book or return it promptly is in violation of the Honor Code.

2. The loan period for books is four weeks. To check out books, a student must present her college I.D. card. Journals, newspapers, reference books, and books from Special Collections do not circulate. Reserve books may circulate for three hours; many may be checked out overnight. Computer software, videodiscs, and videotapes circulate for 24 hour periods. Audiocassettes, records, and compact discs do not circulate but must be used within the Library. All library books must be returned to the Library by the last day of exams in the Spring term.

3. Overdue fines accumulate at the rate of ten cents a day per book up to the replacement cost of the book. The fines begin to accumulate from the first day that the book is overdue. The first overdue notice is sent when the book is approximately approximately a week after the book was due. Students have a ten day "grace period" during which fines will not be collected. A second notice is sent ten days after the first notice. All accumulated fines will be collected from this time on. When a book is thirty days or more overdue, it is presumed lost, and the student's name and the replacement cost of the book will be sent to the Business Office. Students can then expect to receive a bill (on the "Bistro bill") for the replacement cost of the book, plus a twenty-five dollar processing fee for each book. Fines are not charged over vacations or during January Term. Any books which have been lost should be reported immediately.

Fines for overdue Reserves are twenty-five cents per hour for each item and accumulate up to the replacement cost of the item. Overnight reserves are due by 10:00 a.m. the following morning.

Overdue fines on computer software, on videocassettes and videodiscs are $1.00 per day.

4. Books, journals and newspapers should be considered as college property for general, not private, use. Many are now irreplaceable and need to be handled with care. Please report any damage to a book to the Circulation Desk promptly.

ART GALLERIES

The College Art Galleries are located in three buildings across campus: the Pannell Center, the Babcock Fine Arts Center, and Benedict Hall. At the Anne Gary Pannell Center, the college's permanent collection of art is housed; objects are stored or are exhibited in rotating exhibitions. The Pannell Center Gallery also houses high security exhibitions such those planned for 1990-91, which include Mural Paintings of the Depression Era (Sept-Oct), Sporting Art (Nov-Feb), Persian Rugs (Feb-Mar), and the 1991 Art Majors' Senior Exhibition (April-May). Gallery hours are Tues-

Sun, 12-5 p. m.

In the Babcock Fine Arts Center, exhibitions of work by contemporary artists is featured, to support and enhance the work of the studio art department. At Benedct Hall, in the Lobby Gallery, exhibitions are presented which relate to the humanities disciplines which are taught in that building.

Students are encouraged to visit the galleries, to participate in the student docent program (a volunteer program which trains students to interpret the exhibitions and collections on view at Pannell Center Gallery), and to join the Friends of Art organization (a volunteer/contributing group which supports the college art acquisitions program).

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Petition (October 17,1906)

On October 17, 1906, the students of Sweet Briar College, believing in the dignity and honor in student government, desired individual and community responsibility for the conduct of students in matters not strictly academic. The students petitioned before the President and the Faculty for legislative and executive control in non-academic matters.

The faculty, on October 20, 1906, endorsed the requests of the student body concerning matters of control in non-academic situations. This endorsement was made with the understanding that the faculty would approve any constitutional changes.

The Student Government Association, on March 29, 1985, proposed that faculty approval of Student Government Association's constitutional changes be eliminated. On March 29, 1985, the faculty voted in favor of the Student Government Association's motion (see Section VI, B for approval process).

Constitution of the Student Government Association of Sweet Briar College

Introduction

The charter of Sweet Briar College grants to the Board of Directors "full and complete management and control" of the College and its affairs. Subject to delegation of this authority by the Board, responsibility for the governance of the College is shared by the Administration, the Faculty, and the students.

1. The Administration has the primary responsibility for the physical security, health and welfare of the College; for the maintenance, improvement and preservation of all facilities; for the financial stability of the College and for its external relations with governmental agencies, other institutions, members of the wider Sweet Briar community, and the public at large.

2. The Faculty, through its officers and committees, including students whenever appropriate, and its established procedures has responsibility for all academic programs, including degree requirements, the awarding of academic honors, the grading system, and the course offerings.

3. The Student Government Association, through its own officers, committees, and constitutional procedures, bears responsibility for establishing, maintaining, interpreting and enforcing regulations in the following areas, subject to legal restrictions or stated policies of the College:

a. Extracurricular activities (except in those instances where state, regional, and national sports organizations have authority over intercollegiate athletics).

b. Residential hall activities (except those matters deemed by the President to affect the health and safety of the community or the property of the College).

4. As the chief executive of the College, the President has the responsibility of implementing all matters properly referred to her by the other decision-making groups of the College. In matters of conflict, the President's judgment shall prevail, subject only to the superior authority of the Board of Directors, to whom appeal may be made.

HONORARY ORGANIZATIONS

A. Phi Beta Kappa

In 1949, the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa granted a chapter, Theta of Virginia, to Sweet Briar College. Election to membership depends not only on excellent academic record but on evidence of broad cultural interest, scholarly achievement, and promise of intellectual growth. The number of seniors elected to Phi Beta Kappa rarely exceeds 10 percent of the class and may never exceed 15 percent. A limited number of juniors may be considered for election.

B. Tau Phi/Chung Mungs

Tau Phi is an honorary society consisting of juniors and seniors who have contributed to Sweet Briar through scholarship and service. The twenty members are chosen for their interest in academics, character and leadership. The club promotes intellectual growth of the College by assisting the Lectures Committee and organizing projects to further promote the principles of liberal arts education. Tau Phis are not always involved in such intellectual activities. They often enter into friendly rivalry with the Chung Mungs, and manage to get together with this ghostly club for a few events.

The Chung Mungs, an upperclass honorary society, is composed of thirteen outstanding juniors and seniors, known for their friendliness, cheerfulness, enthusiasm and general interest in Sweet Briar. Their activities include sales of goodies in the residence halls and sponsoring of aluminum can recycling campaigns. It is characteristic of this group to constantly seek new areas of activity which will benefit the College. In the moments not occupied by such worthwhile pursuits the Chung Mungs must deal with the serious and soberminded Tau Phi's, harassing and ruffling their intellectual demeanor. Whatever these ghostly thirteen do, they continue to remind us of the needs of others and prove that giving need not be a sober affair. A familiar and integral element of Sweet Briar life is this fun-loving group who so happily chant, "Glory, glory, I'm a Chung Mung..."

C. Sweet Tones/Earphones

Sixteen girls from the sophomore, junior, and senior classes comprise the Sweet Tones, Sweet Briar's small independent singing group which specializes in interesting arrangements of popular music. Tryouts are held each spring and the following year the group entertains for various social events on campus such as the Christmas dinner, Alumnae meetings, Board meetings, and for various organizations in the Lynchburg-Amherst area.

The second newest group on campus is also the loudest! They are known as the Earphones. The tone-deaf, loud-mouthed song lovers keep the campus singing when they rise to the occasion with a song. They do not try to imitate the Sweet Tones (no one could). They just want the Sweet Tones to remember that not everyone is blessed with a tear-jerking voice.

D. Paint and Patches/ Aints and Asses

Paint and Patches, Sweet Briar's dramatic club and oldest honorary, was organized for the purpose of creating and developing an active interest in all aspects of drama and to promote a deeper knowledge of the technique of dramatic art. P&P also attempts to provide entertainment for the entire community and to be of assistance in any theatrical undertaking on campus. Eligibility for membership in Paint and Patches is determined by interest, achievement, and lots of hard work. The various areas of club activity include, in addition to acting and directing, scenery design, properties, lights, makeup, and costumes, providing many opportunities for membership for those interested in various branches of the theatre.

Aints and Asses, as the name should indicate, is a unique organization on campus. Its members, chosen for their wit and lack of restraint, dress in manner unorthodox and behave in manner even more so. The Aints and Asses were originally formed to parody Paint and Patches productions, but now, being masters of comedy, the Asses perform several original skits during the year to entertain students. When spring arrives, one can see them out in full force, blowing their whistles to keep students from trampling the grass.

E. BumChums/Q.V.'s

"Hallelujah, I'm a Bum!" sung gaily, echoes through the halls of Sweet Briar the night of Spring

Step Singing as the Bum Chums tap their ten new members. In addition to an interest in furthering good Lynchburg-Amherst area relations with the College, the Bum Chums are chosen for their good spirit, interest, and general participation in the activities of the College. Throughout their junior year the notorious ten" serve as useful members of the community. As a service organization, the Bums have sponsored the Bloodmobile, the Christmas Bazaar, a foster child, and numerous service projects. Not least among their projects is the famed show, the Bum Chum Inn. Also, the Bum Chums make a fun-loving effort to harass their rival group, the secret Q.V.'s.

When chosen to be a Q.V. one is not taking on a new job but continuing her interests and work for her class. The members of this sophomore honorary society are elected by their classmates in the spring of their freshmen year for the spirit and enthusiasm they have displayed. The Q.V.'s goal, that of spirit and unity, is an intangible and challenging one for each new group to work toward. Their purpose is to promote class spirit and their names are kept secret until Spring Step Singing their sophomore year.

Once tapped, the new member is expected to help with any concerts or shows which are performed each year; i.e. costumes, backstage, lights, or ushering. # RESIDENCE HALL POLICIES

A. Residence Life Staff

It is the shared goal of all residence life staff to promote a positive quality of life for the individual and the community within each residence hall. It is their wish to assist every student in making her adjustment to college life a productive and rewarding one. Together they strive to develop an atmosphere in the residence halls which stimulates personal growth, encourages individual responsibility in decision making, and provides for an acceptance of others. Coordinator of the Residence life staff effort is the Director of Residence Life and Housing.

Resident Coordinators who are professional staff members from the Office of Student Affairs with particular expertise and interest in providing personal counseling, assisting in individual or group problem solving, and promoting the development of community, live in some of the residence halls. During the evening and weekend hours, one of these staff members is on call and can be reached through the Information Center.

Each hall is staffed by at least one student Resident Advisor (RA) who is under the guidance of the Office of Student Affairs. Her main concern is for the student as an individual. She is trained and available to listen to other students as a peer helper, to act as a sounding board, to help students explore constructive alternatives to a problem, to be a source of information about the college, to serve as a role model for her peers, and to refer students to others who may be of more assistance. RA's also assist students in abiding by college policies and regulations.

House Presidents are selected student leaders who live in and serve each residence hall. Their primary functions are to assist students in abiding by college policy and house rule, to promote a sense of community through programming activities in the hall, and to serve as an information liaison between students and officers of the College, and also to serve as peer helpers. House Presidents also assume specific administrative duties (ie work orders, room condition reports) for the Student Affairs Office.

B. Residence Hall Regulations (Including all campus housing for students)

The College reserves the right to enter all college facilities at any time to make periodic inspections of its properties.

The privacy of a room occupied by a student will be respected. Students will generally be given 24 hours notice for routine repair, maintenance, or inspection unless specific or immediate service has been requested by a student. Violations of the visitation options regulations will be dealt with by the Social Violations Hearing Board.

The following steps will be taken by a Campus Police Officer regarding unattended males at Sweet Briar after the closing hour:

i. Individual or individuals are to be informed that they must leave the campus (1st offense only).

ii. If, after a reasonable period of time, he or they persist in staying, a security officer should approach the subject (s) and state, "Young man (or gentlemen), your right or license to stay on this property has expired. Guests will not be permitted to stay in a Visitation Option 3 hall without the full consent of the roommate(s). Should this consent not be available, the student with the guest should utilize any one of the alternatives open to all students. Anyone in the Office of Student Affairs can assist with alternate arrangements.

b. Male guests in Visitation Option 3 areas are required to remain in the room of their hostess from 3 a.m.-9a.m. on both Saturdays and Sundays unless in case of an emergency and then only when escorted by their hostess.

c. Male guests are prohibited from using any residence hall shower or facilities from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. on every weekend as well as from 4:30 p.m.-6:30 p.m. on big party weekends.

d. Visitation Option 3 housing is a privilege, not a right, and thus will be reviewed by a committee of students and staff on a regular basis.

e. The student hostess is responsible for her visitors' and guests' conduct. All visitors and guests, like all students, must abide by dormitory policies and campus regulations, including respect for Sweet Briar property. Students are solely responsible for the behavior of their guests. The students' responsibility includes restitution for damage to College facilities or other restitution which is necessary.

A. Statement of Compliance

Sweet Briar college provides notice of intent to comply with the regulations effectuating Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments of 1972 as amended by Public Law 93-568. We intend to adhere to the letter and the spirit of the law through a policy of nondiscrimination on the basis of sex in all College operations. This policy applies in particular to our education program, to employees therein and to admissions thereto save where excepted under subpart C 86.15 (a). In addition, Sweet Briar College adheres to a policy of nondiscrimination on the basis of race, color, national or ethnic origin with respect to its educational program and activities, employees, financial aid awards and admissions.

B. Statement on Discipline

Any student accepting a place at Sweet Briar should know that the College will not tolerate illegal acts or extremes of social behavior which ignore the rights of others or are injurious to the individual, the community, or the College itself.

In any extreme or clearly dangerous situation the judgment of the President suffices to enforce a decision of temporary suspension and removal from the College until a hearing before the appropriate committee can be arranged. This procedure will be accomplished as quickly as possible.

Any student unwilling to acknowledge such authority on the part of the College is advised to withdraw.

The College reserves the right to exclude at any time, following established procedures that protect individual rights, any student whose conduct or academic standing it regards as unacceptable in a community of scholars and students.

C. Alcohol Regulations

Please note that the following policies and regulations may change in accordance with Alcohol Beverage Commission guidelines.

Consumption of alcoholic beverages at Sweet Briar College, either by students or their guests, shall be controlled by the laws of Virginia and/or Amherst County. The above-mentioned laws make illegal the following:

1. The sale of any alcoholic beverages to persons under 21 years of age.
2. The falsification of age by persons under age in order to purchase alcoholic beverages.
3. The purchase of alcoholic beverages for another person when there is reason to believe that the person is under age.
4. The serving of alcoholic beverages to any person under 21 whether in a private home, residence hall room, club, party, or other location.
5. The transportation of alcoholic beverages unless contained in paper bags or cartons which render the identification of the contents unrecognizable. In other words, it is against the law to carry an open drink in public.

In addition, any person who serves alcoholic beverages to a minor or, for that matter, to a non-minor, may become liable for any resulting accident or injury which occurs. Either criminal or civil liability, or both, may result in such cases if it can be demonstrated that such action was a contributing cause of the accident or injury.

College regulations prohibit consumption of alcoholic beverages in all academic and public areas of the College, by either students or their guests, with the exception of the Boathouse, and other areas officially designated by the Office of Student Affairs. In the Wailes Student Center purchase or consumption is limited for those of age. Food and non-alcoholic beverages must be served at any event at which alcoholic beverages are offered at Sweet Briar College. Honor Code principles apply.

Kegs of beer are prohibited in the residence halls. It shall be the responsibility of each member of the Sweet Briar community to know and to comply with all pertinent laws and College regulations and, further, to help prevent any abuses or excesses stemming from the use of alcoholic beverages. In particular, students are reminded of their general responsibility for the safety and welfare of one another, as well as their specific responsibility to the College community for the highest standards of conduct and behavior, not only of themselves but also of their guests.

Any special permission for exceptions to the regulations above must be obtained from the Dean of Student Affairs. It should be noted that, in general, beer may be served to those of age, with permission and within College regulations, at College-approved social functions held in public areas. Beer to be served under these conditions must be purchased by the student responsible for the event.

A complete statement on alcohol is available in the Office of Student Affairs.

D. Statement of Drug Policy of Sweet Briar College

1. According to Virginia State Law, it is illegal to possess or distribute a wide variety of drugs.

2. Campus Police and local police have the responsibility for law enforcement and may search a student's room if they have evidence that the law is being broken. However, as a protection for the rights of students, the College has stated that it will not condone such a search unless a proper legal warrant has been obtained.

a. Any student reported to have (which means on your personal property, i.e. in your room, in your car, in your bookbag, etc.) or possess (which means on the body) illegal drugs (including marijuana) on campus or who illegally distributes drugs or whose drug-related behaviour infringes on the rights of others will, at the discretion of the Dean of Student Affairs, be subject to a probationary status, will be advised to seek counseling, and/or will be referred to an internal hearing board for possible disciplinary action, especially in the case of a repeated offense. In the latter instance the board may recommend any one of a range of penalties available to the college, including expulsion.

b. Any student found to be engaging in the sale or distribution of illegal drugs on campus or for use on campus will generally be reported immediately to the Campus Police. In such a case, the Administration will also bring a complaint before an internal hearing board. A guilty verdict would result in a recommendation for expulsion from the College.

c. Any nonstudent found to be engaging in the sale or distribution of illegal drugs at Sweet Briar will be reported immediately to Campus Police and, if applicable, a complaint will be filed with the appropriate College authority.

3. Because of the many issues involved, each report of possible drug abuse off campus will be considered in relation to time, place, and circumstances of the instance in question. In the event of such an abuse in which Sweet Briar may be directly or indirectly involved, the Administration reserves the right to file a complaint with the appropriate authority, regardless of parallel legal proceedings.

A complete statement on the drug policy is available in the Office of Student Affairs.

1. Off Campus

Media relations and off-campus publicity relating to Sweet Briar College, its students, faculty, and programs are handled through the Office of Public Relations. This office issues news releases and hometown stories about students and is interested in learning about student activities and accomplishments.

Every Sweet Briar student represents the College to the outside world, and what she says to reporters, editors of college guides, and others contributes to the image of Sweet Briar College. Therefore, with the exception of engagement and wedding announcements, any material a student wishes to submit to any of the media should be cleared with the Director of Public Relations. If a student is unexpectedly questioned off campus by a reporter, she may, if she wishes, identify herself as a Sweet Briar student but should make clear that she is speaking only for herself as an individual.

b. The Public Relations Office also has responsibility for most College publications, except for Admissions recruitment literature. Students, with their consent, are often interviewed and/or photographed for such publications.

c. In case of an automobile accident, a student is advised not to give any information to any reporter or photographer. In the interest of the owner of the car and his/her insurance coverage, it is important that information be given only to police authorities, and that it should be factual. Students are advised not to sign any report of the accident or to assume any liability, except at the direction of the police.

2. On Campus

Any reporter, photographer, filmmaker, videotaper, or distributor of questionnaires who is not a member of the Sweet Briar community must have the permission of the Office of Public Relations to work on campus. The Office of Public Relations must be notified in advance if someone will be working on campus so that preparations can be made and clearances approved to insure cooperation from the members of the community and to protect the College, students, and others from unwanted publicity.

Students are requested to notify the Director of Public Relations if they meet any unauthorized reporters or photographers on the campus.

H. Fund-Raising

Any fund-raising projects, either on or off campus, should be cleared in advance with the Vice President for College Relations.

The stipulations regarding publicity and fundraising are made to prevent conflicts with college-wide fund-raising programs and to promote the best interests of the college community in this area.

I. Solicitors

No off-campus solicitors are permitted in the residence halls. In case any such person is detected, notify at once the Security Police Officers or the Information Center, giving the location of and a description of the stranger.

Requests from groups or individuals not normally authorized to use the College's mailing facilities must be addressed, in writing, to the appropriate office (Alumnae Office for Alumnae Records, Development Office for Parent Records, and others) at least three weeks in advance of the planned mailing date. Such requests must be accompanied by copies of all materials to be included in the mailing.

3. Written approval of the contents must be obtained from appropriate members of the Administration and the Director of Public Relations before the mailing can be processed. If permission is granted to use the College's mailing facilities, the individuals or group concerned will pay in full for all services rendered and materials used.

Letters or statements must be signed and envelopes must carry the name of an individual to whom a reply may be directed. College stationery and envelopes are not to be used.

L. Married Students

If a student enrolled in Sweet Briar College plans to marry before graduation, she is requested to notify the Dean of Student Affairs of her marriage plans at least a month in advance of the marriage. Since there is no student housing available for married couples on campus, the student and her husband are responsible for making off-campus housing arrangements.

M. Public Conduct

Each student is reminded that, in her conduct off campus as well as on, she is a representative of the Sweet Briar Community. She is charged with the responsibility to insure that at all times her conduct reflects creditably upon the good name and ideals of the College.

N. Sexual Harassment Policy

Sexual harassment will not be tolerated at Sweet Briar College from any member of the Sweet Briar community. Behaviour that constitutes sexual harassment includes, but is not limited to: unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal, written, or physical conduct of a sexual nature, whenever:

1. submission to such conduct is implicitly or explicitly a term or condition of employment or participation in an educational program; or
2. submission or rejection is used as a basis for an academic or employment decision; or
3. such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person's work or academic performance or participation, or of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive educational or work environment.

Any member of the Sweet Briar community who feels that he or she has been the subject of sexual harassment should report the incident to the following College officials:

Student complaint- Dean of Student Affairs;

Faculty complaint- Dean of the College;

Staff complaint- Vice President for Business Affairs

The investigation and discipline of an individual alleged to have engaged in sex discrimination, in the form of sexual harassment or otherwise, will be in accordance with 1) the Faculty and Staff Handbook, 2) the Constitutional Bylaws of the Student Government Association, or 3) the Secretarial and Clerical Employee's Handbook, whichever is applicable.

Any member of the Sweet Briar community who engages in the behaviour mentioned above is subject to disciplinary action, including dismissal. ## SWEET BRIAR COLLEGE HEALTH SERVICE

The Harley Student Health Center is dedicated to helping each student learn to assume personal responsibility for her own health and well-being and maintain a state of positive good health.

The Service is staffed by the College Physician (part time), the College Psychiatrist (part time), the Clinical Psychologist, (full time) and four registered nurses. The College Physician holds scheduled office hours while the College is in session. In case of emergency outside of the scheduled office hours, the nurse in charge will inform the physician and secure instructions as to procedure. Consulting services in all medical specialties are available in Lynchburg, 14 miles from the College. The Amherst County Rescue Squad, a volunteer organization, may be called upon in emergencies and provides prompt transportation to the Emergency Room of Lynchburg General Hospital.

A. Out-patient

1. The College Physician may be consulted at the Harley Student Health Center during scheduled office hours. Specific office hours for the physician and the nurses are listed in the Directory of Hours.

2. The Counseling Center, located on the 3rd floor of the Harley Student Health Center, offers assistance to students with personal, family, social, and educational concerns. This assistance is available to all Sweet Briar College students free of charge. Appointments are made by calling the Health Center. A separate waiting room is provided for privacy. All appointments are confidential. The College Psychiatrist is available for consultation.

3. A Gynecological Clinic, consisting of examination and counseling, is available on campus for all students by appointment. Services are provided by a Registered Nurse Practitioner who is well accredited for such services. Appointments are made by calling the Health Service. Confidentiality is maintained for the student.

4. Charges are made for laboratory work and medications.

B. In-patient Services

In-patient services are provided for students ill enough to need bed care. If confinement in the Health Center seems likely to exceed five days, the student or her family will be advised. There is no charge for office visits to the College Physician, consultation with the Psychiatrist or Psychologist. Students have five free nights of bed care at the Health Center. For each additional night, an appropriate and reasonable charge is made.

For legal reasons the Health Center does not dispense medication except in an extreme emergency. The physician will prescribe medications needed by a student. The prescriptions will be delivered daily at a specified time to the Health Center by the Amherst Pharmacy and charges are made by the Pharmacy. Only the person for whom the drug is prescribed will be permitted to pick up the medicine.

The College Physician, Psychiatrist, and Psychologist serve in accordance with the ethical standards of the medical profession. All information received by the College Physician, Psychiatrist, and Psychologist in the discharge of their professional duties is privileged and confidential and will not be divulged without the patient's consent (given in advance) unless required by law, or if in the judgment of the Physician, Psychiatrist, or Psychologist a serious threat to the welfare of the patient or the community may arise out of the patient's medical problems.

The College Physician shares with the department of Physical Education responsibility for the College's program of health education. There is an accredited course in health education open to all four classes under the department of Physical Education. In addition, the Health Center and the Department of Physical Education jointly undertake to provide information on the problems affecting the physical and mental health of the community. Informational materials in the form of books and pamphlets on sex, drugs, and other matters of health are available in the Health Center, the Library and the Office of Student Affairs.

Since the Health Service has the responsibility for the medical care of the students, it is urged that all referrals to consulting specialists be arranged through the Health Center. The Health Service assumes no responsibility when students choose to consult outside physicians independently of the Health Center.

In cases of extreme emergencies, the nurse on duty may leave the Health Center and go to the site of the emergency on campus to administer first aid and make an evaluation. A member of the staff will cover the Health Center during that time.

RELIGIOUS LIFE AND SERVICE

Sweet Briar is an independent college without denominational affiliation. Nevertheless, it has always stressed the cultivation of spiritual values as essential to true education.

From its beginning Sweet Briar College has emphasized cooperation among people of faith within and beyond the Christian community. Even before the great modern ecumenical movement gained momentum, ecumenism was practiced at Sweet Briar and continues to be.

The varied religious backgrounds of both faculty members and students enrich the whole life of the campus community. However, the individual's participation in either the academic study of religion or the College worship services is entirely voluntary.

The Sweet Briar Memorial Chapel provides an invitation to worship to all who enter. Completed in 1966, the Chapel was dedicated on April 23, 1967. Its copper-roofed spire rises 125 feet above the surrounding landscape and stands as a focal point of the residential quadrangle at the east end of the campus.

Among the opportunities for public worship in the Chapel are:

Morning Prayer - Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday

Holy Communion - Wednesday

Roman Catholic Mass - Monday evening

College Vespers - Sunday evening

The Chaplain presides at the Vesper Service and during the year guests from several traditions are invited to participate. A representative group of students, faculty, and staff work with the Chaplain to support religious life on the campus and to plan service projects and programs that encourage religious and moral reflection. The College Chaplain is available for pastoral work with individuals and groups.

The College Chaplain is the Reverend Susan C. Lehman, whose office is located on the lower level of the Chapel.

FOOD SERVICES

The Staff of the Food Service Department has served the College for many years and takes pride and pleasure in its contribution to the quality of campus life. Our statement of purpose is:

... to consistently provide exceptional quality and wholesome food and beverages to students and their guests, in facilities that meet the highest standards of sanitation, served by a staff that is pleasant and cooperative, and to operate within the financial limits established by the College.

A. Prothro Commons

This is the campus dining facility, one of the loveliest dining rooms on any college campus. Students, faculty, staff and guests gather daily in this congenial atmosphere. To assist us in maintaining a consistent and quality food service program, we ask for the cooperation and support of all students in abiding by the following policies:

1. Use of Dining Hall

The Dining Hall is open for meals during listed hours, and is not available between meals, or after hours when the college is closed, unless a request for a special event has been approved through the Director's office.

2. Programs

In an effort to keep the atmosphere during meals congenial and compatible with pleasant dining, we restrict activities during meals to general announcements and student sponsored events that have been approved by the Director.

3. Visitors

Students are encouraged to bring their guests to meals and they are expected to ensure that guests' meals are paid for before entering the service area. Payment can be made at the hostess desk in the lobby.

4. Alcoholic Beverages

In compliance with Virginia A.B.C. Regulations, no alcoholic beverages are permitted in the dining hall.

7. Bag Lunches

Bag lunches are provided for field trips, student teaching and athletic activities off campus. They must be requested by the faculty or staff member in charge, at least 48 hours prior to the event.

8. Health Center Meals

The dining hall sends meals to the Infirmary only at their request. Meals are sent only for the attending Health Service Nurse and for students who are residing in the Health Center.

9. Take-out Food & Snacks

The Food Service program is designed only for meals consumed in the dining hall. We expect students to miss some meals and budget accordingly and therefore cannot allow food and beverages to be taken out for "snacks".

10. Removal of Equipment & Supplies

The china, glassware, silver and table appointments are purchased for use in the dining hall only. Replacement of these items is costly and is an inconvenience to other students when the supplies run out. Removing these items can be considered stealing and therefore is considered an honor offense.

CAMPUS OFFICES

A. Office of the Dean

The Dean and the Assistant Dean of the College have offices on the first floor of Fletcher. The Office of the Dean of the College has responsibility for the following areas: academic counseling; admission with advanced standing; all summer work; class attendance; withdrawal from the College and readmission after withdrawal; academic eligibility; study abroad; academic advising for foreign students; independent study work; and internships. For hours when the office is open, see the Directory of Hours.

B. Office of the Registrar

The Office of the Registrar, located on the second floor of Fletcher, is the source of information and assistance on course offerings, course registrations, class schedules, registration changes, classroom assignments, academic records, grades and grade reports, grade point averages, requests for transcripts, declaration of majors, transfer credit, and graduation requirements.

C. Office of Student Affairs

This office, located in the basement of the Chapel, coordinates housing assignments, matters pertaining to extracurricular student life, orientation, interantional students, women's programming, developmental programming, the Resident Advisor program, and the use of College vehicles for approved activities and cultural events. The Dean of Student Affairs, Director of Residence Life and Housing, Director of Student Life, and Outdoor Program Coordinator have offices in this area. The Dean and Directors are skilled in and available for personal counseling.

D. Career Planning

The Office of Career Planning welcomes students from all classes to its activities. Throughout the year, it offers programs and speakers describing many varied career fields. In addition, the staff presents workshops on necessary skills and pertinent topics on a regular basis. The Career Library houses information on a broad spectrum of career areas, as well as graduate school catalogues, summer job announcements, current job openings and suggestions on job-hunting techniques. Material is continuously updated and available for student use. Representatives from graduate schools, including business and law schools, and recruiters from different businesses interview students on campus.

Students may elect to take an interest inventory and/or the Myers-Brigg Type Indicator to aid in self-assessment and career decisions or use the microcomputer and microfiche systems. The Career Connection (alumnae network) provides contacts for internships, summer jobs, and permanent employment. Seniors and graduates may open a permanent credential file. The Director and staff are always available for personal conferences concerning career direction and preparation. Students are urged to participate in career planning activities from the very beginning of their college years.

E. Alumnae Association

The Alumnae Office, home of the Alumnae Association, is located in the Alumnae House on the Sweet Briar campus. Mrs. Bernard L. Reams [Ann Morrison '42] is the Director. The purpose of the Association is to foster and promote in individual alumnae and alumnae clubs an active interest in Sweet Briar College. This interest builds a lifelong network of friendship and mutual support; most alumnae think of their Sweet Briar friends and contacts as a big extended family. The Association works in a variety of ways: by acting as the liaison between the College and its alumnae; by publishing the Alumnae Magazine; and by continuous communication with alumnae either through their classes or area clubs. Alumnae give financial support to the College by working for and giving to the Alumnae Fund, and by selling imported Holland flower bulbs for club scholarships. They work actively to encourage qualified students to apply to Sweet Briar for admission, and constantly attempt to uphold in their communities the image of Sweet Briar as a superior college for women. The Alumnae Association provides many outstanding speakers and programs for the College community. The office staff coordinates all alumnae programs and provides many special services, such as keeping up-to-date address files which include information on occupations, compiling and printing networking directories, and offering tour opportunities, reunion weekends, etc. to alumnae.
